

Sustainability Study Tour to Bhutan

Sign up for an extraordinary opportunity!

Bhutan is a small kingdom located in the Himalayas that has the highest gross national happiness in the world.

This inter-disciplinary program, open to ALL ECU STUDENTS, examines Sustainability from different angles and perspectives.

Based at Royal Thimpu College in Bhutan, students will undertake collaborative group project work relevant to their course of study.

They will gain first-hand experience of environmental, cultural, social, political and economic factors influencing the way sustainability and environmental issues are managed in Bhutan.

Students may gain credit towards the unit International Science Project ISS3101 or another approved unit.

There are 20 places on the program.
