

Creative thinkers
made here.

Advance your career behind the camera.

Master your craft with as little as six months of postgrad study.

 ECU Creative Humanities

ECU has introduced a range of new postgraduate screen courses that provide hands-on training, practical experience and industry-level techniques of screen storytelling.

During your studies, you may have the opportunity to collaborate with WAAPA actors on short dramas and work with the Aboriginal Performance group, composers, costume, design and sound students. In as little as six months of study, you'll be well equipped to take on the many roles in the screen production space.

Screen courses you can study

- Graduate Certificate in Screen Production
- Graduate Certificate of Scripted Screen Production
- Graduate Diploma in Screen Production
- Master of Screen Production
